W. Kelley Clerk

Affidavit Supporting Petition for Sale

The State of Mississippi
Jackson County,

To the County Court

Oct Term 1874

Before the Clerk of said Court personally appeared George Kannah, who being sworn on oath says that he was the father in law of Samuel A Cartland late of said County deceased and is well acquainted with his personal affairs he says that the Schooner Pascagoula & the Steamer Longton are perishable in their nature and in danger of immediate waste & decay that the keeping them on hand would be attended with much cost & Risk & that the interest of said Testator would be greatly promoted by an immediate sale of said Schooner and interest in said Steamer.

George Kannah
Sworn to & subscribed before me the 9th day of October A.D. 1874.
